State Fair. The governor came to the city at the invitation of the Bryan and Kern club. He had been given a warm welcome by hundreds who whent through the rain to meet the special at the railway station. After dinner he had been demended and acceding to the demand had spoken to a crowded lobby at the Oriental. He shook hands with hundreds. Then the party was allowed to retire.

Informal Reception.

But the city had been notified that an informal reception to the governor would be tendered at the hotel in the morning at 9 o'clock. Luckily, the governor and his party had risen early. Breakfast had been early, too. Therefore, when the jam in the lobby a little after 8 o'clock called for the visitor, he was, after a little, ready to appear.

As there was a crowd within and without the place, the street in front being jammed for some distance, it was requested that those retire, allowing others to come.

This was kept up until nearly 10 o'clock, when the party left the hotel for the Fair Grounds. It is estimated that the visiting executive shook hands with thousands in this time and heard many assurances of good will from admiring Texans.

Goes to Fair Grounds.

Automobiles were in readiness and whisked the governor and his party out to Fair Park. He arrived to find the grandstand at the race track crowded, the estimate being more than 5,000 as the number of listeners. Close attention was accorded the speaker, after he had been received with cheering that lasted two minutes or more. Frequently his points and thrusts were received with long cheering and applause.

Following the address there was another period of hand-shaking, the speaker remaining on the stand until . it was necessary to get the throng, still eager to get to him, out of the grandstand in time for the racing

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things stuperying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good!! Hereafter for this yery reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine also it must be labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

The cost of publishing the Special Edition has been substantially equal to the gross receipts from its patrons,

Ordinarily, copies of an expensive special edition are sold by the publisher for 10 cents each, but it has been decided since it now costs three cents a copy to mail out additional extras, and out of appreciation of those who supported the special edition enterprise, the publisher has decided to mail at his own expense any address furnished, one copy for each dollar paid by any putron of the edition, and there will be given free three additional copies to each subscriber for each and every dollar paid by such patron of the Special Edition all of which copies will be addressed and mailed by the publisher in return for subscient sum with 💠 which to secure postage. In other words, the subscriber who * appropriated $10.00 to the expense or this comprehensive advertisement can secure ten papers differed to any point in the United States or its dependencies tree of charge, both as to paper and postage, and it desired, thirty additional papers will be mailed to same extent on the payment to the publisher of 90c for postage. This oner holds goods in proportion to amount paid.
